

Long Bredy & Kingston Russell Parish Council

The Long Bredy Parish Council of Long Bredy, Dorchester is the proprietor of the land known as the "Playing Field" situated behind The Rookery, Long Bredy, Dorchester, Dorset. Ordnance Plan ref: SY56 89NE.

The Land was transferred on the 14th September 1995 from West Dorset District Council to Long Bredy Parish Council. Approximate valuation £700.00. The land use is for amenity land only and as such is used now as a playing field for the use of the parish residents and visitors.

Long Bredy Parish Council do not own any buildings.

Kingston Russell Parish Council do not own any land or any buildings.